The Town of Chebeague Island is requesting proposals for COVID-19 communications services to assist the Town Administrator through October 2020 in developing, designing and distributing clear consistent messages to citizens and visitors that will help keep Chebeague Island safe during these summer and early fall months of the COVID-19 pandemic. Consulting communications professionals will be expected to work independently, developing, designing and proposing messages to be posted through effective distribution channels appropriate to Chebeague Island, working under the tight demands of the State of Maine’s COVID-19 emergency response and the responsibilities of the Town Administrator as the emergency response coordinator for the Town of Chebeague. Messages being proposed must meet the standards of the Centers for Disease Control and the State of Maine’s policy positions on COVID-19. The consultant is expected to attend Meetings of the Board of Selectmen, the Community Advisory Response Team for COVID-19 (CART) and to serve ex officio on the communications team of the CART.

Applicants must be able to perform all functions, except routine printing, using their company resources for producing materials for different types of social media, including the design and production of any film and website releases being proposed. Applicants must have a proven track record in social communication and social mobilization, ideally with some experience in public health. Experience working in an island context is required. The contractor will report directly to the Town Administrator. This contract is funded under a grant to the Town of Chebeague from Keep Maine Healthy.

Further information may be obtained by contacting:

Town of Chebeague Island
192 North Rd.
Chebeague Island, ME 04017
Attn: Marjorie Stratton, Town Administrator
Phone: (207) 846-3148

Proposals are due by July 22nd in the Chebeague Island Town Office at the above address; envelope clearly marked “COVID-19 Communications Consultant”. Proposals will be reviewed by the Town Administrator and two members of the Board of Selectmen. The Town reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals or proportions thereof.
